There are two academic deadlines coming up to be aware of.

1. RU Logs (Reading University) are due on Monday, Oct 4. This is the list of books that your student has read during 1st Term. Please contact your teacher if you have questions.
2. The deadline for the remainder of Term 1 work is Friday, October 8. All missing work must be turned in on or before this date. Check ALMA (the online grading program) to see if your student is missing any work. For help, come talk to or email Mrs. Ferlo in the academic office. mferlo@apamail.org

October Builder Theme:

I am a Builder When I am Perfectly Honest

Builders are perfectly honest. What does “perfectly honest” mean to you? What does it mean to your children? To me, “perfectly honest” means:

- Giving back the extra money if a cashier or bank teller makes a mistake.
- Walking back into the store to return the pen you accidentally walked out with.
- Letting your teacher know if a problem she marked right was really wrong.
- Telling the truth—even when it is hard and even when you might get in trouble.
- Telling ALL the truth--not leaving out parts of it.
- Always playing fair at games.
- Working hard and giving your employer a full day’s work for a full day’s pay.
- Never letting someone else take the blame for something you did.
- Admitting when you have made a mistake-not pretending it didn’t happen.

Spend some time this week talking as a family about this beautiful, important and often rare character trait! Builders are perfectly honest.

APA Reading and Math Lesson Video Bank (Week 2 or 3)

Did you know that there are videos for our reading and math lessons on the APA website? This way if your student is sick for a few days or if they just need another repetition of the teacher teaching it to get their homework done, they can get the help they need. Go to www.americanprep.org and then click on "Parent Resources" and scroll down to "Reading and Math lessons" and then click on "Math Lessons" or "Reading Lessons". Click on the math or reading level your student is at and click on the lesson number on the left hand side.

Friday Club Waiting List

Our Friday clubs are up and running! A huge thank you to the staff members who volunteered to be club mentors this year! Currently all clubs are full, but we are starting wait lists for each of them. If spots open up, we will invite the next person on the list to join. To get your student’s name on a club waitlist, please use this link to sign up. <https://forms.gle/TcVFfAW6FdSd3bxX8>
